J. WATSON & CO.,
OREGON, MO.

—Mrs. M. Spoerle has our thanks for a basket of fine grapes.
—An old settler's reunion will be held at Troy, Kansas, Saturday, Sep. 30.
—A. L. Caskey is improving his residence property with a new roof and a fresh coat of paint.
—Miss Fannie Meyer was in St. Joseph last week, attending a meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society.
—Mr. and Mrs. John Cottier, of Liberty township, mourn the death of their little daughter, aged six months, Thursday, Sep. 14, 1899.
—Wash McNulty, of Mound City, has returned home, after an absence of three months at Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he went with a view of benefiting his health. We are glad to state that he received much benefit.
—W. E. Minton is now a resident of St. Joseph.
—P. M. Flinn has removed from Bigelow to Mound City.
—May Curry Helden, of Horton, Kansas, is here visiting her mother, brothers and sister.
—Mrs. Rev. H. A. Sawyers and baby, Wm. O., returned on Saturday from a visit to Maryville, Mo.
—James Donovan, of New Point, is now a full fledged auctioneer, and will be ready to cry your sales at any time. Address him at New Point.
—Miss Stella McMillan, of Lincoln, Nebraska, who has been visiting here for several weeks, returned home last week. She was accompanied by Mrs. Adam Hahn and little child, who will visit relatives there for a few days.

BENTON'S CORNER.

I can secure a farm loan for you at a very low rate of interest. If you are contemplating a change don't fail to see me.
I am headquarters for Real Estate deals, renting farms, &c.

Yours Truly,

R. C. BENTON,

OREGON, : : MISSOURI.

County court will meet next Monday, Oct. 2.
—Ely Wickham is transacting business in Nodaway county, this week.
—See Zook's city photos enlargements. They are up to date and prices reasonable.
—Mrs. Dorothea Schlottbauer and Miss Martha Snider are visiting with relatives in Kansas City.
—Uncle Cyrus Philbrick will probably leave next week for Blue Lake, California, where he will likely pass the winter.
—B. G. Pierce and wife left this week for Kansas City, where Mr. Pierce will attend dental college, this fall and winter.
—D. D. Carr is now ready to furnish you with all kinds of nursery stock at right prices, close at home—one of the best firms in the state. Keep your orders for Dan.
—The report that George Gillenwaters had sold his farm, and which we published last week, has not yet been confirmed. The party who had contracted for it, failing to put in an appearance.
—R. part has it that E. S. McDonald is soon to be home of us, having traded his place, just east of town, to James Vaughn for his property in Oregon, known as the Taylor Taylor residence.
—The intelligent young man last week had Katie Bruner building "two floors in his house" instead of two-flores things made of brick to let the smoke pass out from the stoves. Now, do you understand?

Found on the road between Oregon and Kunkle's mill, Wednesday last week, a purse containing a small sum of money. Owner can recover same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this notice.
—Hugh Biggs was entertaining his brother, Grant and family of Keokuk, Iowa, last week. He had not seen him for 22 years. He will likely locate in Mound City. We extend him a hearty welcome. He is a carpenter, and at present is building a house for one of the Uphouses.
—L. E. Fiegenbaum, of Geneva, Nebraska, son of Rev. P. W. Fiegenbaum, of this city, and who is known to quite a number here, having visited in Oregon at different times, has been elected a lay delegate to the general conference of the M. E. church, which will convene in Chicago in May, 1900.

Ed. Heston, wife and son, accompanied by Mrs. H's father, John Kallenbach, of this city, will leave Friday of this week for Eldorado Springs, this state, where they will remain for several weeks trying the waters and baths at that point, with the view of benefiting Mr. Kallenbach's rheumatism.
—Owen Owens, aged 61 years, died at his home in the Blair neighborhood, Friday, Sep. 15, 1899. He had been a resident of the county for 30 years. The remains were laid to rest in the Baldwin cemetery, the funeral being conducted by Rev. W. D. Sinclair of the M. P. church. He was a member of the Christian church.

—O. A. Martin, a former Oregon citizen, is here visiting his brother, Dan, and other relatives. O. is now located at Great Bend, Kansas, where he is quite a large contractor for stone, brick work and plastering. He is looking well and reports business good, times good and everybody prospering in his country. This is his first visit to his old home in 22 years.

The Trenton Weekly Republican, published at Trenton, Grundy county, this state, came to us under the name of Sep. 21, in enlarged form, containing 20 pages, and a complete history of the county and its pioneer citizens. It was also well filled with local news and advertising. Two pages were printed in red. One of the occasions for this fine edition was to advertise their street fair, which is to be held Oct. 10-12, 1899.

A. B. Schrantz and wife, of Davenport, Iowa, were here last week and this, visiting his sister, Mrs. E. A. Welty and family, and from here went to Mound City, where he visited his father, and mother, John Schrantz and wife. Ashney is an old Holt county boy, having attended our public school here during the time of Prof. O. C. Hill. Many of the boys of those days remember him well. He is now located at Davenport, Iowa.

R. H. Russell and family will leave next week for Oakland, California, where they will probably make their future home. We are sorry to lose this excellent family from our midst, as they were born and reared almost right here in Oregon, and it seems in their departure that we are losing members of our own immediate family. We congratulate the citizens of Oakland on their acquisition, and wish them happiness and prosperity in their new home.

—The Oceanic, of the White Star line, arrived in New York recently. She is the largest vessel afloat. She will need nearly 10 feet of water when fully loaded, and her displacement will be 31,500 tons. The Germans are building one larger than the Oceanic. Our builders now understand better how to build large ships successfully than when the Great Eastern was launched. Brunel, though a great engineer, pointed out the way to success if he did not reach it himself.

—A. VanBuskirk and daughters, Miss Carrie and Mrs. Rebecca Allen and husband, F. C., also Mrs. Priscilla Whitmer, of upper Holbrook, in Holbrook, Kansas, Tuesday of this week, attending the funeral of Mrs. Alex. Mills, an aunt of Mr. VanBuskirk and Mrs. Whitmer, who died in that city, Sunday, Sep. 24, 1899. Mrs. Mills formerly resided in this city and had many friends here. We hope to be able to publish an obituary of this estimable lady next week.
—Will McKisick's sale last Tuesday was well attended and prices realized were good. Will and his family will move next week to Kendallville, Indiana, where they will likely locate. We are indeed sorry to have Will and his estimable family remove from among us; he is a worker and a hustler, and a good citizen. We can only hope that success and health will be with them in their new home. His father, Uncle John, who has been making his home with him, will go back to Indiana, and make his home with his sisters, near Fort Wayne, Indiana. May Uncle John pass his old age in peace and happiness in the Sentinel's wish. Uncle Dave Foster will also accompany Will, and will likely make an extended visit with relatives and old friends, may he have a pleasant visit.

—A Kansas poet to the chigger: "Here's to the chigger, that grows no bigger than a point of a very fine pin; but the lump that he raises burns like blazes and that's where the rub comes in."

—In October, 1899, during the presidential campaign, the total deposits of the Kansas City banks were $18,696,861. Now they aggregate $14,415,328. And still there are a good many people in Missouri who keep right on voting the Democratic ticket, just as though every prediction made by Governor Stone, Senator Vest, Congressman Dockery, and the rest of the push, had not been falsified by events.
